ANNOUNCES REGISTRATION FOR

The Rosetta LeNoire Musical Theatre Academy

Seeking Talented Young People 14-20

Amas Musical Theatre is a 42-year-old multi-ethnic, non-profit performing arts organization dedicated to the development of new musicals and to the training of young performing artists. The Academy is designed for teenagers between the ages of 14-20 of all races and ethnic backgrounds. Students are accepted into the program by auditions held in October 2010.

The Rosetta LeNoire Musical Theatre Academy meets on Saturdays 9:45-4:30 for classes in singing, acting, and dance, as well as related professional performance classes. A presentation is held in January for parents and friends. In May of 2011, the Academy students perform a fully-produced Off-Off-Broadway musical. Classes are held at P.S. 40 at 319 East 19th Street (between 1st and 2nd Avenue) New York, NY 10003

30 students are selected on the basis of talent, potential and ability in the performing arts. Classes are conducted by established New York theatre professionals and offer the opportunity for students to develop their talents in a nurturing and supportive environment. In addition to scheduled classes, special guest artists meet and work with students.

The Rosetta LeNoire Musical Theatre Academy has been featured in The New York Times, The Amsterdam News, The New York Post, and on NY1. The New York Times hailed the Academy production of Footloose as a "spirited revival...that displayed the triple-threat talents of a teenaged multicultural ensemble..."

Tuition for the Academy is $900 for 25 weeks of instruction and two-week Off-Broadway Production!

FULL AND PARTIAL SCHOLARSHIPS ARE AVAILABLE FOR STUDENTS ELIGIBLE FOR TUITION ASSISTANCE
